PETITIONING THE COURT

To issue a warrant.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number    Nature of Noncompliance

1

Special Order: Beginning October 15, 2012, defendant shall complete two (2) days of work crew per week through the Washington State Department of Corrections pending further hearing of this matter on November 20, 2012, unless expressly excused by defendant's U.S. probation officer for good cause. If compliance is deficient, the probation officer shall immediately report such violations to the Court.Supporting Evidence: Mr. Morales has failed to commence his 2 days of work crew per week through Washington State Department of Corrections (DOC) as directed on October 17, 18, and 20, 2012.

On October 11, 2012, after Mr. Morales' revocation hearing, he was given instructions to go to DOC and make arrangements to do a minimum of 2 days of work crew per week starting the week of October 15, 2012. Mr. Morales made arrangements to perform these work crew days on October 17, 18, and 20, 2012. Mr. Morales was a no show/no call for work crew on these three scheduled work days. According to DOC staff, he has been terminated from the program due to unexcused absences.

Special Condition # 5: You shall abstain from alcohol and shall submit to testing (including urinalysis and Breathalyzer) as directed by the supervising officer, but no more than 6 tests per month, in order to confirm continued abstinence from this substance.

Supporting Evidence: Mr. Morales tested positive for alcohol on October 8, 2012.

On October 8, 2012, a urine specimen was collected from Mr. Morales as a standard protocol after failing to attend scheduled drug and alcohol treatment sessions at Merit Resource Services. On October 15, 2012, this officer received a confirmed positive urinalysis test for alcohol indicating Mr. Morales had consumed alcohol on or before October 8, 2012.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court issue a warrant for the arrest of the defendant to answer the allegations contained in this petition.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
